VOL. XXVII

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1899, 10 A. M.

NO. 73

LANCASTER.

Dr. Acton will build a handsome brick residence on Lexington avenue. Mr. Ed Walker died on Monday forenoon, instead of Sunday, as stated in your last issue.

The Record will have a rooster today, Thursday, crowing over the victory for water works, for which that paper is to be credited in a large measure.

It is absolutely funny to hear either party cry out fraud against the other, as the records of all parties show that no angels' wings are sprouting on any of them.

A farmer bought a Courier Journal on Wednesday and failing to see the rooster, as in days of yore, cried out fraud to the newsboy and demanded a return of his money.

Rev. J. C. Massee informs me that evangelistic services will begin at the Baptist church next Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. G. Bow, preaching at 10 A. M. and 7 P. M. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Our frequent elections tear the business interests of the country to pieces, and I am in favor of a limited monarchy, to avoid the principal elections. We would live more happily and experience more prosperity.

The many friends Col. R. M. Burdett are grieved to hear of his death at Lexington on Tuesday. He was for many years one of the ablest lawyers at this bar and enjoyed a lucrative practice. He was one of Lancaster's most enterprising citizens and was an intelligent, genial and altogether a worthy and an accomplished man. Many will recur to the happy moments spent with him when this city was his home.

Garrard democracy requests that a small rooster, even if it is a bantam, be served with this letter on account of the election of Wm. Ray, Jr., a democrat, to represent the county. Here, in a republican county, the home of the governor and other leading republicans, a man, "to fortune and to fame unknown," living among the vine clad hills of Buckeye, the stronghold of republicanism, defeated a prominent republican, who was supported by leading republicans of the State and the governor, who spoke here in his behalf. It was very much like David fighting Goliath.

As a presidential election is next in order, I desire to suggest that, no difference how near Mr. Bryan is to the hearts of democrats, we will never be able to elect a democratic president who lives west of the Mississippi or south of the Ohio river. The wealth and manufacturing interests of the nation are confined to the Eastern States and they, or the North Middle States will furnish the chief executive so long as conditions remain as they are, and they are not liable to change. He must be identified with the interests of that section and we should consider well before we nominate.

On Tuesday, Virgil, a little son of Dr. J. B. Kinnard, fell from his saddle, his foot hanging in the stirrup, and received some painful bruises. Squire Burton fell into a cellar of the new hotel, on Tuesday, and was badly disabled, though not seriously wounded. On the same day, Ben Baker and Huston Clark engaged in a difficulty, concerning some former misunderstanding. Baker fired one shot and Clark threw several stones, but no one was injured. Later in the afternoon they met, on Battle Row, and each fired several shots, Baker receiving a slight wound in the head. Sheriff Sanders and Deputy Ward arrested them. Baker was lodged in jail and Clark gave bond for his appearance for trial.

I am under obligations to Clerk J. M. Duncan and his polite deputy, O. W. Shugars, for the county vote, which is as follows: Goebel 1,198, Brown 19, Taylor 1,297, Wallace 46, McChord 1,181, Irwin 1,253, Ray, dem., for representative, 1,244, Walker, rep., 1,229. Water works carried, the vote being 252 for, and 19 against. The following board of city council was elected: J. E. Stormes, J. C. Robinson, J. A. Beasley, J. M. Higginbotham, Rice Bengue and J. I. Hamilton. As there are three new members the public will watch their proceedings with interest, until they find how they stand on different questions, such as water works, blind tigers, night police, &c. A full vote was cast and no trouble occurred over the election.

Is Elected Beyond A Doubt.

So is the Full Ticket, Including McChord.

Legislature Democratic on Joint Ballot by 46.

Maryland, Virginia And Mississippi Also Democratic.

BRYAN WINS IN NEBRASKA.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 10, 7:20 A. M.—Chairman Blackburn places democratic majority at 46 on joint ballot. Senate surely made up of 26 democrats and 12 republicans, possibly 27 democrats; house 65 democrats, 35 republicans, 61 having strongly been heard from. Blackburn will be elected senator on first ballot beyond doubt.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Goebel claims his election by 7,000. Plurality will be 4,000 in round numbers. All around democratic headquarters there is great rejoicing over the magnificent victory that has just been won. Senator Goebel to-night received telegram from Bryan congratulating him on his victory. A half hour before receiving it Goebel wired Bryan: "I have won Kentucky for you and democracy next year."

Goebel is elected beyond a doubt and you can place rooster on top of column. The Courier will contain one to-day.

Blackburn says republican majorities are raised everywhere by Chairman Long and Goebel's decreased. Republicans are hedging on their bets and are now betting two to one on Goebel.

ALBANY.

Clay gave Taylor 167 majority. Pulaski gave Taylor 1,541 majority. Laurel county gave Taylor 181 majority.

The republicans made gains in Kansas.

The 8th district gave Goebel a small plurality.

A democratic mayor was elected in San Francisco.

Wayne county, Goebel 1,226; Taylor 1,427, Brown 16.

Franklin county gave the democratic ticket 1,119 majority.

The republicans carried Iowa by 60,000, which is a gain for that party.

Casey went over 400 republican and Taylor was elected to the Legislature.

Chairman Long now claims Taylor's election by 4,130. At first he claimed 40,000.

Returns indicate a republican majority in South Dakota of not less than 10,000.

The fusion ticket in Nebraska, championed by Bryan, was elected by over 12,000.

Jackson rolled up 1,320 for Taylor, although there are but 800 names on the assessor's books.

Goebel carried Jessamine by about 300. The democratic candidate for the Legislature won easily.

Boyle county did nobly. Yerkes' announcement for the Senate doesn't seem to have cut much figure.

Calloway county gives a Goebel plurality of 1,504, a gain of 248 over the plurality for Shackelford in 1897.

W. P. Cox, democratic candidate for the legislature won in Anderson by 39, while Goebel carries the county by 21. Two contested precincts in Madison may decide the race for representative from that county, electing Combs, democrat.

Robert Treat Paine carried Boston by 6,000, but his republican opponent was elected governor of Massachusetts by 65,000.

Russell county complete gives plurality of 407 for Taylor. J. P. H. Taylor, representative for Russell and Casey, 700 to 800 majority.

Hon. C. C. McChord is elected by over 2,000, which seems to be a pretty good endorsement of his bill to regulate rates on railroads.

A. T. Allen, who was Thomas B. Reed's secretary, was elected in the 1st Maine district to succeed him in Congress, by a majority of 4,650.

Sixty of the 67 counties of Pennsylvania give Barnett, republican candidate for State treasurer, a plurality of 109,465 over Crensy, democrat.

Six democrats were arrested at Frankfort on warrants sworn out before a Federal commissioner charging them with intimidating colored voters.

Merced county: Goebel 1,381, Brown 104, Taylor 1,699; railroad commissioner, McChord 1,271, Irwin 1,539; representative, Chinn, democrat, 1,178, Wilson, republican, 1,596.

There was a light vote in Mississippi, but the democratic majority is 30,000 for the entire State ticket. The populists elect one member of the Legislature. The rest are democrats.

On the basis of the vote cast in the 150 Assembly districts, the republicans carried the State of New York by 11,854 plurality, although New York city gave a democratic majority of 67,000.

Joe sent this: Hon. W. J. Bryan, Lincoln, Neb., "We have carried Kentucky by small, but safe majority. Sincere congratulations upon your splendid victory in Nebraska. Jo C. S. Blackburn."

The Mt. Vernon Signal issued an extra at 9 A. M., Wednesday, which showed that Roebuck gave Taylor 776 majority. Bethurum beat Totten for representative in every precinct including Totten's own, Broadhead.

The Federal and municipal authorities clashed over the election at Covington and Chief of Police Pugh and other police officers were arrested by United States marshals. They were charged with interfering with election officers.

The blood thirsty and savage Deboe says in his impotent fury: "Taylor is elected and, by heaven, we won't be counted out. If the democrats attempt to count us out they'll get shot and some of the Election Commissioners will get hanged."

Boyle county gave Goebel 1,419, Taylor 1,442, Brown 44. Beckham 1,390, Marshall 1,387, McChord 1,401, Irwin 1,371. Bagby, democrat, was elected representative by 65 majority. R. G. Price, democrat, defeated Stanwood, republican, for circuit clerk by 132.

The republicans were overwhelmingly defeated in Maryland, Smith, the democratic candidate for governor, winning by a plurality of from 10,000 to 15,000. Indications point to a democratic majority in the General Assembly, enough democrats having been elected to offset the republican hold-overs.

Madison county gives Taylor, on the face of returns, 2,895, Goebel 2,802, Brown about 75. For the legislature W. T. Harris, republican, 2,802, W. W. Combs, democrat, 2,742. For county judge, E. C. Millon, republican, 2,814, N. B. Coy, democrat, 2,739. Maj. C. F. Buram, republican, no opposition, was elected to the senate.

Ohio has given Nash, the republican candidate for governor, a plurality that will reach fully 50,000 and possibly exceed it. Hamilton county (Cincinnati) was carried by McLean by 1,174, but the republicans managed to elect four men on the county ticket against the fusion combine. The legislature is strongly republican in both branches.

For the democracy of Kentucky the outlook is growing brighter and brighter unto the perfect day. Chairman Blackburn has raised his figures from 3,000 to 4,000 and holds that the Legislature will have on joint ballot a democratic majority of thirty-four, even conceding the doubtful districts to the opposition. Patience, and proceed with the official count.—Louisville Times.

"I am elected," says Mr. Goebel, "and if so declared, I will occupy the office in spite of the threats of the Louisville & Nashville railroad company, Taylor, and their political allies. We will have in this State four years of democratic management of State affairs. We will have no riot alarm bells, no bayonet rule and no Federal marshals at the polls, but the representatives of the plain people of the Commonwealth."

Taylor claims his election by 4,000, but his own figures show his defeat. His claim is based on falsification of complete returns and grossly partisan estimates. For instance, the republicans in their table of returns credit Goebel with 900 plurality in Kenton, whereas the official returns show the plurality for Goebel to be 2,493, a difference of 1,593 in Goebel's favor in one county alone.

RETURNS now received by the Democratic Committee at Frankfort show that Goebel has carried all the districts in the State except the Third, Fifth and Eleventh. Allowing for all contests, giving him but 7,500 majority in the First district, the democratic strong hold, and liberally discounting every possible loss, his total majority in the democratic districts is figured in round numbers, 23,000. The republican majority in the Third district is placed at 1,700. The republican figures in Louisville are taken, showing a majority there of 3,255. The Committee has received definite reports of the majorities in 11 of the 19 counties of the Eleventh district. The total majority in the district is estimated by allowing the other counties the full majorities returned from them in 1896. Upon this calculation the republican majority in the Eleventh is barely 16,000. That makes the total majority in the republican districts barely 21,000. Goebel's majority in the State by this ultra-conservative calculation is 2,000. It is more likely to be 5,000.

P. M. McRoberts, Esq., who is elected to the Legislature by the skin of his teeth, is somewhat of an unknown quantity in politics, having taken little or no part in political matters. As a gentleman and as a lawyer he stands well and as the legislature will be democratic, he won't be able to get through any extreme measures, even if he were disposed.

BROADHEAD.

The election passed off very quietly, as usual, but there were earnest workers for both parties. We gave democratic majorities of 28.

L. F. Habbie from Lancaster was here a few days since looking about the right-of-way for the Southern railroad. We think the road will be built this route, but we don't fall out with you Stanford people for wanting the road.

Mrs. G. Hicks has gone to Moreland to spend the winter with her daughter. Mrs. J. H. Minks. Mrs. G. W. Watkins and Mrs. C. A. Pierce from Oakley are visiting their father, S. Tempin Dr. Proctor has gone on a business trip to Louisville.

Dr. Clark has been working day and to get his new house completed for Mr. Sieffert, from Louisville, and Mr. Anderson, from Lebanon Junction, who have opened up a restaurant and lunch room. They will furnish meals and basket lunches day and night to trainmen. This will be a great convenience for the traveling public.

NORRIS TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store.
